More added-value features, supporting your in-house colour needs

Most people would assume that a small workgroup colour printer that's this fast and this capable is going to stretch their budget. But the fact is we've taken the advanced features you'd expect to pay extra for, such as double-sided printing and built-in networking, and included them as standard.

The result? Impressive print speeds, striking image quality, excellent media flexibility - and a full three-year warranty for extra peace of mind - in a versatile, compact printer that is within your budget
